

HOUSE MAY HEAR PAY CONTROVERSY

Arthur Young & Co. Affair
Principal Treasury
Topic Today.

The controversy between Arthur Young & Co., expert accountants, and two of their former employees, over the amount these employees are entitled to receive for their work in helping to revise the business system of the Treasury Department, was the subject of much talk about the department today. The story of this difficulty was told exclusively in The Times yesterday.

What is awaited now is the threatened litigation between the employees and Young & Co. If this comes about, as the employees say it will, the matter will be aired in the courts and the accountants will tell just what they did in the overhauling of the system of doing business in the Treasury Department.

Resented By Old Employees.
As to the value of the presence in the department of Young & Co., accountants, opinions differ. Old employees of the Treasury have resented it from the first. They have not hesitated privately to express their feelings about it. They do not think much of the proposed modernization of business methods, on the ground that the system in the Treasury is a growth of years and is not to be revised intelligently by outsiders.

Strong in Young's Praise.
He talked of the controversy between Young & Co. and their employees today.

White House Callers.
Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine.
Representative Campbell, of Kansas.
Austin, of Tennessee.
James J. Hill.
The members of the Cabinet, excepting Secretary Dickinson.

lined and sent the officers ashore. That night the ships anchored outside the bar, for fear that the loyal torpedo boats might destroy them.

NEWS OF SURRENDER IS RECEIVED HERE

Terms of the surrender of mutinous Brazilian sailors on board warships in the harbor at Rio de Janeiro, were received here today by Charge d'Affaires de Silva, of the Brazilian embassy.

In a memorandum sent from the dreadnaught battleship Minas Geraes to President Fonseca, of the republic, the sailors express themselves as repentant, and trust themselves into the hands of the President. The wireless message was as follows:
"We repent of the acts we committed in our defense. For the sake of order, justice, and liberty, we lay down our arms, trusting amnesty will be granted to us. We remain obedient to your Excellency, in whom we have all confidence."
What action is to be taken in response to this unconditional surrender is not known by the embassy attaches. The sentence for mutiny in Brazil is death.

Brazilian army, say the embassy attaches. The pay of the leader of the mutiny is about $17 a month, and he had attained the highest rank possible for a common seaman. Other sailors are paid very much less.

MRS. KING'S ESTATE GOES TO FAMILY

The following bequests are made in the will of Mrs. Lou Y. King, wife of George King, who died November 19, last: Her husband, $3,000; her sons, George and Edward King, $3,000 each; her daughters, Mrs. Jane S. Slpe and Miss Ida May King, $5,000 and $10,000, respectively.

Benjamin S. Graves, brother of Mrs. King, is named as executor of her estate in the will, which bears the date of December 26, 1905.

After the above mentioned bequests have been paid, the remainder of the estate, which is valued at about $40,000, will be distributed equally among the beneficiaries.

MAN WILL ISSUE COMMITTEE CALL

Representative Mann of Illinois, chairman of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, said today he would call a meeting of his committee next week to consider the several bills pending for the consolidation of the various health and chemical bureaus in the several executive departments.

BATHTUBS AS COALBINS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—No more bathtubs will be installed in the houses to be built for the foreign workmen employed by the various subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation at Gary, Ind. Bathtubs already installed have been used for coalbins and almost every other purpose except that for which they were intended.

Prize $1 Garments

For a Day Tomorrow 88c All Styles To Be 88c

All mothers may not fully understand the problem of children's garments of today. They should link health, comfort, style, and durability. A page of The Times could be profitably filled with the evolution of children's garments. That the Palais Royal department chief has kept abreast of the advance is generally conceded. Tomorrow's demonstration will be of interest to all mothers, teachers, physicians, and others with the interest of children at heart. Wash dresses, now looked upon as most hygienic and worn the year around, are here to link every essential of health, comfort, style, and durability. Sizes and styles are here for little boys and girls to 14 years of age. The best possible at $1.00—to be 88c for tomorrow only. Bring the children tomorrow—we pay the car fare in the reduced price—and allow our experts to explain the superiority of the Palais Royal $1.00 garments. Presents of books for the children—one of our ways of "keeping them good."

Dresses and Coats for Girls to 16 Years

Another problem solved—becoming garments for girls no longer children and yet not women. In addition to the regular stock the entire collection of imported models and samples of New York's most famous maker of juvenile garments is to be here tomorrow at $3.98 to $13.00 instead of $5.00 to $25.00. The dresses include the latest one-piece Peter Thompson Suits, of wear-resisting worsted cloths, sizes 13 to 17 years, at only $3.98 for choice. At $6.98 to $13.00, in sizes to 16 years, are samples of coats of imported all-wool cloths, man-tailored, worth to $25.00. Supplementary Bargain—genuine Beaver Hats at $2.98 instead of $5.00. In Juvenile Department, third floor, northeast corner.

$10.00 to $18.00 Hats, $5.00

$20.00 to $30.00 Hats Reduced to $12.00

With the Christmas Bells of Santa Claus almost within hearing distance, and with the children coming uppermost in our minds, we all have to make some sacrifice for their enjoyment. Dolltown is to be built on this Second Floor, and its inhabitants are to be the most beautiful Dolls in the world. All Trimmed Hats are to be sacrificed—sold at much less than cost—because Dolltown is to acquire territory from the Millinery Department. So, for tomorrow, the year's best bargains in Trimmed Hats for mothers, grown daughters, aunts and cousins. $5.00 instead of to $18.00, and $12.00 instead of to $30.00.

All Untrimmed Hats and Trimmings—All Finally Reduced

$5 Hats	$8 Hats	$3 Hats	$2 Hats	50c Wings	$1 Wings	$18 Plumes	$12 Plumes

Only $3.00 and $4.50 for the best $5.00 and $7.50 Beaver Hats—those with long soft nap, the latest-moment Small and Large Turban and Picture Hats. Only 49c and 98c for the $2.00 and $3.50 Felt Turbans, small and large rolled shapes, in black, garnet, cardinal, brown, green and navy. Only 15c and 39c for the 50c and $1.00 Wings, Feathers, Aigrette and Pompon effects, in white, black and colors to match the hats and dress materials. Only $8.00 and $13.00 for the $12.00 and $18.00 Ostrich Willow Plumes, superb specimens, white and black, all hand tied. With the Trimmed Hats reduced to $5.00 and $12.00, with the Untrimmed Hats and Embellishments at the prices you have just read of; with the Palais Royal's expert milliners as loyalty to your service as if regular prices were asked, is it not patent that tomorrow is to be best bargain day of the year?
